3Cs

Friday, October 28, 2011 • Tokyo American Club

The 4th GOLD symposium is a collaborative Japan - U.S. Leadership Initiative following the first three successful symposia in Los Angeles and Tokyo.

This symposium will bring together influential leaders from Japan and the U.S. to share their insights into business advantages gained through the execution of the "Diversity & Inclusion" strategy, and to offer the "3C" skills required to be successful 21st century innovative leaders.

Benefits

- Learn how leaders close the gaps between Strategy, Actions and Results
- Discover creative leadership tools and skills required to be successful 21st century leaders
- Explore best practices that will create alignment between Talent Management and Diversity & Inclusion
- Make meaningful connections with business and professional leaders across the Pacific
- Be inspired by and learn from the experience of other participants

Who should attend

Current and future corporate, business, academic, non-profit and entrepreneurial women and men leaders who value international collaboration and wish to expand their networks.
